

WHITEWASH FOR GIANTS

Couldn't Hit "Doc" Hildebrand When Necessary.

PLATTSBURG BATTED HARD

Apperious Made Two Pretty Running Catches, But Fell Down at the Bat—Rutland Shut Out by Burlington.

Too much Hildebrand. That, in a nutshell, is the story of Saturday's game on the Intercity ground, in which Plattsburg prevented the home team from scoring and themselves crossed the plate four times. The big fellow was all there, tantalizingly deliberate in his movements and with speed, benders and fine headwork. Four times it looked as if the Giants would score, and on three of the occasions it was up to the mighty slugger, Apperious, to bring in the runs, but Sam fell down before the prowess of the big Princetonian, the first time going out, Lander to Bottomus, the second time flying out to Wells and the third time being a victim to Hildebrand's deceptions.

But if Apperious was weak at the bat—and all the Giants were—he was strong in center field, covering a prodigious amount of territory. In the sixth he saved at least one run by brilliant running catch off Cosgrave, for the third out. In the seventh also he captured Cote's short hit, when there were two men on bases, and a score seemed inevitable. Along with Apperious' fielding should be classed the second base work of Wells, the former Princeton player, who accepted twelve chances without an error, also Lander's fast foot and handwork at short. Lander was all over his section, fast and sure, and at the bat he cracked out two zipping singles. McDonald and Hildebrand also got two singles. For the Intercity Uniac did the best hitting, getting one single and a double, of the five hits by his side.

Smith started to pitch for the home team, and while not wholly effective did good work till he injured a finger trying to stop Washburn's grounder. The following inning, the seventh, Plattsburg got after him and Morey was called in from right to finish the game, Coombs going to his place.

In the first inning, with one down, Cote singled and went to third on McDonald's hit into right field. Then Mac drew a throw down to second, and Cote started for home. He would have been an easy out had not Stankard shot for the grandstand. Smith disposed of Washburn and Bottomus on strikes. The visitors got another in the third when Lander singled and stole second. Just as he started to steal third McDonald played in scratch hit down the third base line and Lander kept all the way home, getting there easily. Lander attempted to repeat his pilfering performance in the fifth, and got out for his pains, Eaton making a perfect throw to second.

In the seventh Wells doubled, Cooper went out, Smith to Ashmore, and Hildebrand advanced Wells with a single. Lander singled and Wells scored. Morey was called into the box at this point, and Bottomus fled to right and Cosgrave to center. Washburn and Bottomus touched up Morey for singles in the eighth, but there was nothing doing as Cosgrave fled to Eaton, Apperious gathered in Wells' fly and Morey took care of Cooper's grounder. By fast running of bases by Hildebrand the visitors got their fourth score in the last inning. Hildebrand singled, went to third on Lander's sacrifice, Dorman to Ashmore, and scored when Cote went out, Dorman to Ashmore.

The home team had two excellent chances to score. In the third Smith struck out but got first as Cooper dropped the ball. Ashmore sent him to second with a sacrifice, and Cooper's passed ball allowed him to reach third. Dorman got a free pass and stole second. But Uniac and Apperious were not equal to the job, the former striking out and the latter being disposed of by Wells. Again in the eighth, after Dorman had got on first by a fielder's choice, Uniac hit to the fence for two bases, and Apperious was up. A ball over the fence would have tied the score and the crowd demanded of Sam that he annihilate the ball. Sam struck out.

On two other occasions a Giant got as far as second, only to die there. The score:

RUTLAND ALSO SHUT OUT.

Burlington, With Vickers in the Box, Did It, 6 to 0.

Rutland, July 31.—Rutland was shut out by Burlington Saturday, 6 to 0. Vickers outpitched Doescher, keeping the hits well scattered. Dr. Strong of Burlington, who umpired the game, gave Rutland the bad end of it and in the eighth was surrounded by a crowd of 300 rooters, and but for the interference of the police would undoubtedly have received hard usage. FIRST POINTS FOR RANGERS

Defeated Northfield Foot Ball Eleven Saturday.

FOR THE SCAMPINI CUP

In Spite of the Difference in Score, 5 to 1, the Game Was an Interesting One to Watch—The Line-up of Teams.

In the first game of the series to be played for the Scampini cup, the Rangers defeated the Northfields on the local grounds Saturday afternoon by the score of 5 to 1. Notwithstanding the large score the game was very interesting and the playing on both sides was fast and furious.

The Rangers won the toss and chose the south goal. In less than a minute after the kick-off Cunningham kicked the first goal for the Rangers. McKenzie followed with two more in the first half and the half ended with the score 3 to 0 in favor of the Rangers. In the next half Northfield seemed to play a very much stronger game, being weak only in kicking goals. Time and again they worked the ball up to the goal posts only to lose it because of their inability to kick. Hogge, goal tender for the Rangers, doing great work in blocking. Cunningham and Hughes each kicked a goal in the second half, while Nichols saved Northfield from being whitewashed.

The line-up was:

RANGERS		NORTHFIELD
Hogge	goal	Sim
Scott	back	Beattie
Mackintosh	back	Nichol
Lindsay	half	Anderson
McLeod	half	Summer
Mason	half	Gibbs
Hughes	forward	Walker

ANOTHER VICTORY OF KEENE.

Great Crowd at Closing Races at Brighton Beach.

New York, July 31.—James R. Keene's Synobly, favorite at 1 to 4 in the betting, leading from start to finish, won the $15,000 Brighton Derby at Brighton Beach, L. I., Saturday, defeating Agile by four lengths. The time for 1 1/2 miles was 2:33-1/5. Mr. Keene was so well pleased with Nicol's ride on Synobly that he presented the boy with a $1,900 check.

VAIN SEARCH FOR TEACHER.

Miss Mary A. Tucker Missing Five Days.

Wolboro, N. H., July 31.—For five days campers at Lake Winnepesaukee and inhabitants of this town have conducted a thorough, yet unsuccessful search for Miss Mary A. Tucker, who disappeared from her cottage at Camp Caspique last Tuesday.

Miss Tucker is a teacher at the Hope street high school in Providence, R. I., and overwork had once made it necessary for her to go to a sanatorium. It is thought by her friends here that she has set out to walk to her home in Providence.

On Thursday the woman was believed to have passed through Milton, 20 miles from here, but search in that vicinity failed to locate her. Her step-father is Dr. W. D. Faunce, pastor of a Baptist church in Providence.

FOUR INJURED.

Runaway at Bennington Causes Broken Bones and Bruises.

Bennington, July 31.—In a runaway here Saturday afternoon four persons were badly injured. Mrs. Serles of Pownal was driving, when the horses became frightened and ran. The wagon was tipped over. Mrs. Serles had both hips broken, a lady with her had one leg broken and was otherwise injured. Mrs. Serles' father was badly bruised, and a lad with them had one arm broken and was otherwise out. They were attended to here. It is thought that all will recover from their injuries.

FARMER INSTANTLY KILLED.

Milo Gay, Charleston, Thrown from Load of Hay and Neck Broken.

Newport, July 31.—Milo Gay, a prominent farmer living in Charleston, was instantly killed by being thrown from a load of hay which he was loading Saturday. The horses became frightened and endeavoring to check them he was thrown to the ground, his neck being broken. He was fifty-six years old and is survived by a wife.

A Newton, Mass., Woman

prominent in society, says: "I would not for anything be without Comfort Powder. It is splendid for irritations of the skin. It cures prickly heat, chafing, offensive perspiration, tender feet, and keeps dress shields sweet, and it has no equal for the nursery. Every woman should be sure to get Comfort Powder, it is so far superior to all others." Barre druggists sell it.

SCHIDLOFSKI IN JAIL.

Regains His Nerve When He Is Locked Up at Cambridge.

Boston, July 31.—John Schidlofski, who was arrested in Colorado recently on the charge of having murdered his wife at Belmont on the 12th, arrived at Boston Saturday in custody of State Officers Whitney and Rhoades. He was taken at once to Middlesex county jail in East Cambridge. It is expected he will be given a hearing early this week.

CHOLERA MORBUS Cramps, Pains

No other ginger so pure, so safe, so effective.

Look for OWL TRADE MARK on the wrapper, lest you get a cheap, worthless substitute. Thirty-five years the standard in purity, flavor, and strength. Sold by druggists and grocers everywhere. Get the genuine.

OVER THE OCEAN.

In attempting to close the open door China should be very careful of her fingers.—San Francisco Bulletin.

The grabbing of Asiatic territory by the powers without the consent of the grabbed is not apt to be quite so fashionable from this time on.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Not for more than thirty years has the political atmosphere of Europe been so heavily charged with electricity, presaging disturbance of superlative energy, as it is this summer.—Philadelphia Record.

German colonies in Africa and German naval posts in Asia and the Pacific ocean might easily be cut off and reduced at leisure by British fleets. No German power could prevent the loss of every foot of land held overseas.—Cleveland Leader.

"Hallelujah" and "Amen."

The expressions "hallelujah" and "amen" are said to have been introduced into Christian worship by St. Jerome some time about the year A. D. 390.

Horse Holidays.

In Western Australia some of the farmers send their cattle to the seaside each year for a holiday, as the change of air and food is said to be extremely beneficial to them. The grass on the coast is impregnated with saline, which has the effect of a tonic on the animals.

Bread Eaters.

The Frenchman eats nearly twice as much bread as the Britisher.

Sunday in Heligoland.

Sunday in Heligoland begins on Saturday at 6 p. m., when the church bells toll, and continues till the same hour on Sunday. Formerly no vessel would leave port between these hours.

Opening a Blister.

For opening a blister or a pimple; if a pin has been thoroughly sterilized, it cannot poison the flesh. One should hold it by a pair of scissors or forceps in a flame until it has been made red hot. Then it should be plunged into clean water and be at once wiped with a clean rag. Heat kills all germs. Fire purifies absolutely.

Captive Lions.

Lions in captivity are affected by bad weather just as human beings are. A rainy day will make them limp and listless, while a glimpse of sunshine restores their spirits wonderfully.

Odd Translation.

A missionary says that a native of India having translated the hymn, "Rock of ages, cleft for me, let me hide myself in thee," the version proved to be literally as follows: "Very old stone, split for my benefit, let me absent myself under one of your fragments."

A Fortunate Young Lady.

Miss Jennie Martin, 176 North Paul Street, Rochester, N. Y., says: "I suffered long from kidney complaints—home physicians and their medicines failed to afford me relief. A friend induced me to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y. The effect was wonderful. By the time I had taken two bottles I was completely cured and have had no trouble since."
